Complete Revenue Cycle Management
Fast. Accurate. Compliant.
zotecpartners.com

Business to Consumer Starts With Zotec.

The paradigm shift from business-to-business healthcare to business-to-consumer healthcare has created a material impact on the revenue cycle, especially as high deductible health plans characterize a major shift in the responsibility to pay.

Each process within the revenue cycle ultimately leads to the patient. Zotec Partners combines revenue cycle management with patient experience methodology that allows you to engage patients as consumers in the new health care landscape.

Revenue Cycle Management

Our unique blend of proprietary software technology, detailed processes and skilled professionals make up a world-class revenue cycle management service that offers:

- Customized billing processes and protocols
- Complete and compliant charge capture
- Detailed claims and denials management
- Continual coding education and improvement
- Contract variance analysis
- Nonstop information monitoring
- Patient experience methodology

Healthcare bills can be confusing for patients. Zotec takes the guesswork out of it and puts our patients at ease with multiple payment options and personalized customer service.
